Mark,

We will support you in all you do.

We will help you in all that you need.

We will share with you in all you experience.

We will encourage you in all that you try.

We will understand in all that is in your heart.

We will always love you in all that you are.

Love always,

Dad, Mom, and Ann

You made it baby boy! I couldn't begin to tell you how proud you have made me throughout your life. You are a beautiful young man, with potential beyond imagination. I wish you a life time of happiness. I thank God everyday for blessing me with your dad and the time we had together. We were able to share some beautiful years and two beautiful children. Your dad was always proud of you. He walked with his head high, all "puffed up" when ever you danced, made honor roll, played baseball, because you were "his boy." These are your dads words to you from the letter he left you.

"I just want to tell you that I love you with all my heart"

-Well you know the rest-

You have taken on a road that i know is hard on you, and I thank you! You baby, make my heart happy again. These pictures were one's that touch my heart. I know that your dad would look at you as proud as he did when you graduated from Jr. High. We always wanted the best for our children and you are "The Best."

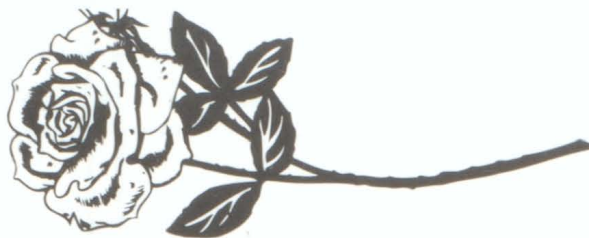

May God always bless you, guide, and protect you!

With my unconditional love-
Mom and Dad

Amy,

Wow! Our other baby has grown up so fast!! You're going off into the "real" world and have to finally learned how to cook (besides ramen noodles and mac and cheese!) In other words when you come home, your room will no longer be your room and you'll have to sleep on the couch when the other kiddums come home. Your stuff won't clutter the (already full) bookshelves in the room you usually lived in, but all the toy cows will still be here and those funky socks you own will be shipped to you wherever you go to college. Congratulations! "Memsy"! You're no longer a baby but a BIG baby!

Love,
Dad, Mom, Jason, Melissa and Jennifer

Brady,
You have grown into the handsome, intelligent, generous, young man I knew you would. I am so proud of you. I love you, you will go far..try hard..
Love Mom

Trishia,
It is hard for us to write this message through our tears of joy. We are so proud that you have over come everything and reached this goal of graduating high school. Please remember God's rainbow, which is a sign of God's promise to guide you through any storm. He will see you through all troubles and make your days bright. Where ever you go God is always with you and we are too. You were a fighter from birth and have made it. God's Blessings to you now and though out your journeys.

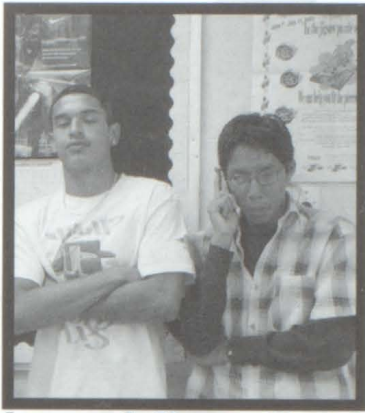

Love Mom, Dad, & Eddie
